

CONTENTS

BRAZILIAN JOURNAL OF SOCIOLOGY Of The Brazilian Society of Sociology

05	Editorial Irlys Barreira
13	Private unease, public sociology: the legacy of Wright Mills Gabriel Cohn
35	Theoretical contributions and empirical research in Sociology on public policies Soraya Vargas Côrtes
57	Reflections on the internationalization of Brazilian Sociology Tom Dwyer
89	Labour and the challenges of sociological research José Ricardo Ramalho
107	Everyday life and the crafting of research José Machado Pais
129	In defence of Sociology: economicism and the invisibility of the social classes Jessé Souza
159	Knowledge craft in the idea of the university: international comparisons Franz Josef Brüseke
187	Networks and social movements projecting the future Ilse Scherer-Warren
219	Diffuse violence, fear and insecurity: the recent marks of cruelty César Barreira
243	Revisiting the foundations of peripheral modernities: gifts, markets and the colonial pact Paulo Henrique Martins
275	Intellectual work from the viewpoint of craftwork and the city as a research field Irlys Barreira
297	Resumos/Abstracts/ Resumes
312	Contents
313	Sommaire